

Sample Media Questions

For Georgia K. Hilgeman-Hammond
Executive Director and Founder

1. What is the Vanished Children's Alliance (VCA), what services does it provide, and when was it formed?
2. Where is the Vanished Children's Alliance located? What is VCA's geographic scope of service? Local, national, international?
3. You started the Vanished Children's Alliance because of a personal experience. Can you tell us a bit about that? What was your background prior to your child becoming missing?
4. How is your background an asset to VCA and the services it provides?
5. Who are the missing children and how many are there?
6. Tell us a little about each category of missing children.
7. What emotional and/or physical impact does the abduction or missing experience have on the children and their families?
8. How do you locate these children?
9. What is the role of the law enforcement in missing and abducted children cases?
10. When children are located, what is the best way for them to be reunified with their families?
11. How can we prevent children from becoming missing or abducted in the first place?
12. You indicated that your agency provides training to various groups nationally and locally. What types of trainings do you offer and to what audiences?
13. What can the public do to assist Vanished Children's Alliance in its mission?
14. How can people get in touch with Vanished Children's Alliance and you?